“ So sorry for your loss, she will be missed. When I would bring Mom and Dad to the Hickory Corners Fire Company dinners she was always there and they would talk and talk. I will miss her smiling face. Bonnie (Carl) Wolfe

“ I was saddened seeing this. Marjorie always wore a smile and I don't remember her complaining about anything. She had such a full life. Prayers to her whole family. Thinking of you all, Jane (and Richard) Troutman

“Aunt Marjorie, my heart breaks that you're no longer here with us, yet it rejoices that you're with Uncle Chewing Gum man and other loved ones. You were an angel here on Earth and even a more beautiful angel in Heaven. I have so many fond memories of you. You always made me feel loved. Though not a fan of your fruit cake (or anyone's fruit cake) I will miss your "magic" cookies (they were pink and green) and your peach upside down cake. I remember driving you nuts when I was little asking you all of the time when Mandy was coming to visit. I will miss you and love you forever.

Love, Aimee

The only Sunday School teacher I remember! She made an impact for sure. The world lost an amazing lady but Heaven gained an angel!
