“ I just found out today that Trudy has passed away. I am so saddened and shocked by the news! I have known Trudy for years, having done private care at the nursing home where she worked. She was my friend on Facebook and we exchanged messages. She was a bright light in our world. Everyone will miss Trudy more than words can say.

“ Once in a lifetime you find someone who takes your breath away , who absolutely makes you a better person not to mention captures your heart . That is who Trudy was to me . We talked for 22 years before I finally made the step to visit you and make it official , did I tell you it was the best decision of my life ? It went so good I made another trip a month later :) . Well when I left December 6 all I could think about was the next trip to see you again , we had so many plans, our future together . We counted the days for me to visit for your birthday bash but that got postponed , we were counting down the days for this covid to go away. When we talked last May 12 at 4 am , your 6 am . You reassured me that the doctors knew your issues and that it was nothing they couldn't handle ... well here we are . You told me you loved me and I told you I loved you but I had no idea that would be the last time I would hear your voice , see your beautiful face. I'm so grateful to have had you in my life , you were the best there is , why you chose me I'll never know but “thank you “ you gave me something to look forward to a love that I've never experienced , a love of a lifetime ! I can tell you I'm so lost without you , I just hope you know that you are my one and only and you will be till my last breath . I will love you forever and for always till we meet again my love ❤️

Troy, thank you for the beautiful memorial of my cousin, Trudy. I am glad that she had you. She was more like a Sister to me. People that knew her, she seemed touch their lives in a very special way. She will greatly missed and remembered in a very special way. Consider yourself a member of our family always. May God be with you, Casey and her boyfriend. I know she is up in Heaven singing to us and looking over all of us. Take care and be safe.

I did not get the chance to meet Trudy but was looking forward to it in the not so distant future. I heard so much about Trudy from the man that loved her from the bottom of his heart. He is broken without you Trudy. He will truly miss, love & honour your memory until his last breath.

I asked him if it was ok to post this here to tell you: mmTroy loves you deeply. You respect each other & you found a very special life partner. Unfortunately too soon he had to say goodbye to his love. All I know is how happy you made him. How thrilled I am to see his face light up when he spoke of you. I sure wish I had known you yet I feel like I do through Troy. For now & until the future allows and I get to finally meet you I know I will love you instantly. I just wish I'd had that chance. Rest peacefully Trudy & please watch over Troy he really needs you. A best friend can help so much but not like the love of your life can. My deepest condolences to all of Trudy's loved ones especially her daughter Casey.

That was nice of you to post about my Cousin, like Troy. I know he meant a lot of up Trudy even though we never met. Trudy and I were going to do lunch but Tim didn't permit and happened. She will always be my sister and Casey my niece. She is greatly missed and remembered in a very special way. Thanks again for your kind words. I really appreciate it.

“ Oh my Dear Trudy,Cousin/Sister like good friend. Such a sweet, caring, loving, giving and beautiful woman who had a amazing singing voice. Trudy was going to sing at my Wedding but she was expecting Casey. Casey decided to arrive early so she could come to my Wedding etc some turkey. Ha ha. I knowing she is singing to everyone in Heaven - her Dad and Brother. So many great memories of our visits together, parties, and family reunions. So much laughter and fun. Trudy, you will be greatly missed and remembered in a very special way. Casey, Dolly and the entire Klinger Family, you are all in my thoughts and prayers. May God be with you in this most difficult time.

“ I met Trudy while my mother was a resident at the home and Trudy made it a point to make my mother feel special and always telling stories to each other.
I'm sure they are having some conversations again, on a heavenly level and sharing a cheeseburger and fries like they did on special days at the home.
RIP Trudy.
