I was so saddened to see that your mother passed away. She was such a pleasant person...always had a smile and friendly hello. Your dad and my dad drove to work together and your mom and my mom were friends, that's how I got to know her. We had many friendly conversations regarding her hometown, Fearnot, which is also where I live. We shared many friendly chats regarding our little church in Fearnot, which is now being torn down. She was so sad when we closed the doors to that little country church. I will miss those many talks at McDonalds. RIP Punk!
