“ I just read your Upper Room devotional and additional posting this morning, Shirley, and I can't tell you how touched I was. Your relationship with William reminds me of mine with my husband Dave and how I should be mindful every day of the love we've shared for the last 53 years. May you be comforted by wonderful memories and the promise of reunion someday. Karen Stadden (Lancaster PA)

One of my middle school math teachers, but also the husband to my mother's cousin. In youth, I was over at their place often hanging with his son Terry.

I recall one time when Bill and Shirley were working with Terry on the 9 multiplication tables while I was there. I mentioned a trick that can be done with the 9s, didn't go quite as well as I had hoped.

My condolences to the family.
